DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the screw-action via the closure must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The claimed subject matter does not enablement requirement because the closure and the connector are form-fitted in claim 1. Claims 2 and 3 depend on claim 1, and once the arresting means have locked in place, the closure will not be able to rotate, so it is not enabling for the closure to be a screw-action closure, and the closure and connection via a screw thread.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 4, and 8-10 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eaton (WO 84/00942).

With respect to claim 1, figure 1 and 14, Eaton teaches a device for forming a combined pack (shown in figure 1), which contains the following constituent parts: a connector 3 with a left-hand part, a wall 333, into which two holes 335 are introduced, and with a cavity (area between the two closures 305 and 307) to the right of the wall, a left-hand and right-hand side, a closure with two arresting means 331, characterized in that the connector can be fixedly connected to the closure in a straightforward manner via the arresting means and the connector and the closure are form-fitting.

With respect to claim 4, figure 1, Eaton teaches the use of the device for the fixed connection of storage containers 1.

6. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Erickson (US Patent 5,480,204).

With respect to claim 5, figure 1, Erickson teaches a combined pack 10 which contains the following constituent parts: two or more storage containers 14 each having a closure 22 and a handle a device 24, characterized in that the storage containers are fixedly connected via the device 12.

With respect to claim 6, figure 1, Erickson teaches the storage containers are canisters 14.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Eaton (WO 84/00942).

With respect to claim 7, Erickson teaches two storage containers, but does not teach that the storage containers are different sizes. Official notice is taken that it has been held that, where the only difference between the prior art and the claims is a recitation of relative dimensions of the claimed device and a device having the claimed relative dimensions would not perform differently than a prior art device, the claimed device is not patentably distinct from the prior art device. Gardner v. TEC Systems, Inc., 725 F.2d 1338, 220 USPQ 777 (Fed. Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 830, 225 USPQ 232 (1984). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the storage containers different sizes for the advantage of being able to hold multiple types of containers, and not just one type.
